ALLIED BOERS QUARREL.

have openly joined the rebels. Syngman, who accompanied Commissioner Bauer on a tour through the colony, now commands 1000 rebels, who have seized Dordrecht."

The Times in a leader comments on the capture of Kurman as an example of Boer rapacity. It says the place was unimportant as a strategic position.

The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, telegraphing Monday, says: "The Boers assert that eighty natives fought on the side of the British at Kurman. They say their object in capturing the place was to open the way for a commando to go south into the Prieska and Konhardt districts, where the Boers hope to foment rebellion. It is reported that the Boer leaders allow every burgher to return home one week out of every seven."

Gen. Roberts Arrives and Makes Report

London, Jan. 11, 4 a. m.—During the interlude of apparent military inactivity and official secrecy Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener have arrived at the seat of war. It is assumed that their clear vision, supported by 30,000 fresh men who are due to arrive in South Africa within thirty days, will alter the situation and that the fourth month of the campaign will witness the beginning of victories for the British arms. They are not, however, expected to produce definite results for some days, but their mere presence will restore the shaken confidence of the men at the front in their generals.

Lord Roberts finds 120,000 men on the defensive or watching for an opening. Lord Methuen's health, according to the Daily Mail, has broken down, and the Field Marshal may relieve him. Possibly some others will be relieved of important commands. There is certainly plenty of rank in evidence in South Africa. In addition to the Field Marshal, there are two full Generals, four Lieutenant Generals and twelve or fourteen Major Generals. There is an uneasy suspicion that when Ladysmith casualties are announced they will be disheartening and will partly destroy the patriotic glow produced by General White's "victory."

METHUEN HAS BEEN RECALLED

New York, Jan. 11.—A cable to the Tribune from London, dated January 11, 6 a. m., says: Lord Methuen has been recalled to England. I learn this on the highest authority.

It is learned that he was laboring under great mental excitement after the battle of Modder river and that the War Office has considered it necessary to displace him as he is evidently not in a condition to command troops.

Two members of his family are said to be weak minded. General Wauchope's last words quoted in yesterday's dispatches have created a most painful impression.

BRITISH PREPARE TO MOVE.

Sun, dated Modder River, January 8th, says: The British pickets are using bushhacks in systematically cutting away the patches of brushwood in front of the Boer lines. The work is risky, and is only done when a good opportunity offers. Thus far there have been no casualties among the men detailed for the work. The demolition of farmhouses between the forces has also commenced. These preparations are taken to mean that the British intend to make a move shortly.

How Suffolks Were Caught.

Rensberg (Cape Colony), Monday, Jan. 8.—It is reported here, officially, in reference to the disaster of the first battalion of the Suffolk Regiment, that Lieutenant Colonel Watson marched the regiment in close column to the top of the hill at midnight. He assembled the officers and was addressing them just at daybreak when the enemy vol-leyed at a distance of thirty paces. The Colonel, his adjutant and two other officers were killed. The Suffolks, who had scarcely fired a shot, fled back to the picket, about 1,000 yards away, some one having shouted "Retire!" About 150, however, remained, lost heavily and finally surrendered.

Our operations since have been unimportant. Several reconnaissances have been made and these show that the enemy is jealously guarding his communications to the north.
